Aussie of the Month Awards
My Canberra Memories

In Week 4 of Term 3, 45 Stage 3 students along with 6 teachers went on an excursion to Canberra. This is what 5/6R discovered when writing some memories from the trip:

“The snow was the best part of the trip. It was so much fun on the tubes, but exhausting.”
Caleb

“I enjoyed Questacon because there were a lot of fun activities. The anti gravity slide was fun. You had to hold onto a pole and let go after 3 seconds and free fall down the slide.”
T’Leigha

“The teachers were wonderful!”
Mrs Townsend

“The earthquake house was my favourite part at Questacon.”
Zali

“Canberra was the BEST week EVER!”
Rhianna

“Thank you to all the teachers who put the trip together and for coming with us.”
Courtney

“We came home happy but tired.”
William

MONDAY AFTERNOON TOUCH COMPETITION
The Monday Afternoon Touch Competition continues this week. Thank you to players and coaches for being on time and representing your school so well.

Mrs Kenniff announces the draw on Monday at assembly but be aware the timeslots for each division remain the same each week for each division.

NIPPERS – 4.30pm
SENIOR MIXED (BOYS DIVISION) – 5.10pm

Please assume that you play at these times unless otherwise notified.

TOUCH KNOCKOUT
Congratulations to the Hillvue PS Boys Touch teams. Hillvue PS defeated Nemingha PS 16-1. The team will now move onto the next round of the competition. From all reports the boys are to be congratulated on the way they presented themselves both on and off the field. They displayed outstanding behaviour and sportsmanship throughout the afternoon.

At this stage our opposition is still being finalized as the other half of the draw still have games to complete. Details will be advertised when they become available.

T20 BIG BASH
The Boys Group will compete in the MILO T20 Blast School Cup this Friday 12th September 2014. The event is to be conducted at Riverside No 2 Oval. Hillvue PS have nominated two teams in the non competitive division.

This is a great opportunity for our students to participate in and try a new sport. Notes have been distributed to those involved and must be returned to Mr Taylor before Friday. There is no cost for the day and all necessary equipment is supplied by Cricket NSW.
Free BBQ every day at 1pm
