Touching tradition

THE students at Hillvue Public School enjoyed a day of NAIDOC Week activities on Wednesday.

The students celebrated NAIDOC Week, which will run until July 5, by making johnnycakes, painting boomerangs and also holding a special award ceremony.

Schools around the region have organised NAIDOC Week activities, as students break for school holidays next week.

Leader photographer Geoff O'Neill captured the students in action on the day.